The Tribine says: For the first time in many years the republican opinion of Now York has found expression in a state convention. One intuited and eight was the majority before which the Conking machine wont to the wall jesterday. If the voice of the representatives of the cities had not been stitled by district association and had found as free expression as did that of their brethren in the rural districts the convention would have been simost manimus. The trick rhominated is made up of good material is well; distributed geographically and is representatively both wings of the party.

The Times says: The convention yesterday may be justly called a reform convention, it leaves the party in a healthy and vigorous condition and there is no doubt that the aution of the convention in breaking with custion, which is he geterally approved. The conduit what for getting the generally approved. The candid kind one which pervaide the convention with reference to the court is an indication that it will reference to the court is an indication that it will require even nore than the awail democratic fatulty to make a hurely sectional issue again very prominent.

The Herald saysith republican convention tender conservative and lanks affair. The opponents of Coukling carried the lorganization, it is seemed to have asset their power with dignity and reserve. Whether the harmony will fast is an ther question, but the anasthetic influence of Arthur as president will not be lost upon the republican convention even in analys. For two or three reasons we call attention to this decision. First, the same policy which court may be urged with equal 'orce against' another method by which "the government lays with one hand its power on the property of the citizen and with the o her hand heatows that property on favored individuals to aid private enverprises and build up individual fortunes." We refer to he scheme known as a protective tariff. "This," as the court said about the Topeka hond sase, "is none the less robbery because , is cone under the forms of law. ' Congress indeed has the legal power to create and upho t this system, but this fact in no respect changes the character of the system tasif. It is equilation for special interests, at the expense of the public. The plan of voting a subsidy in the shape of cipal and interest-bearing bonds is one form which the practice of taxing the public for a purely versonal benefit takes, while another form of it s presented in the way which all the farmers of the country, and particular y those of the northwest and south, are taxed by the national government to an sidize private persons engaged in manufactures in the eastlegislation of congross purposely and avowedly levying a tax to pay these men counties. Yet in all the Un ted F tates there is but a fraction over 4000 persons, men, women and children, employed in the manufacture of salt At this day tee farmers and buttermakers of the country are taxed 100 per cent, on all the salt they use, in order to subsidize the few employers of hese 4000 men, and boys, and girls. That ends the matter. But a proportive substidy for each large its all the time.

This is unanswere able. The Chicago Tribund forms it is all the increase.

This is unanswerable. The Chicago Tribune follows it with the remark that the arricultural adshitants of the United States are just now threatened with being placed between the upper and the sether milistones of taxation.
